OBITUARY

MRS. ALBERT PARADIS

Mrs. Albert Paradis died suddenly the night of Dec. 27, 1950, in Vienna, Va., where she had been living near her son, Culver. She was born March 21, 1874, in Momence, the eldest of five children of Mary Clarke and Anson Culver, who until the last 15 years of their lives lived in Momence, moving to Ortonville, Minn., at that time.

They were actively interested in music, and the civic and social life of the community until they moved to Minneapolis, Minn., in 1913, returning to Momence to live in 1919.

Mrs. Paradis was preceded in death by her husband in 1947. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Selling of Orlando, Fla., and Julie Gower of Kankakee; one son, Culver Paradis of Springfield, Va. There are five grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my mother, Catherine C. Parish, who passed away Jan. 30, 1940:

"GONE"

(Abram J. Ryan)

Gone! and there's not a gleam
of you,

Faces that float into far away,
Gone! and we can only dream of you,

Each as you fade like a star away;
Fade as a star in the sky from us,
Vainly we look for your light
again;

Hear ye the sound of a sigh from us?

"Come!" and our hearts will be bright again.

Come! and gaze on our face once
more,

Bring us the smiles of the olden
days;

Come! and shine in your place
once more,

And change the dark into golden
days.

Gone! gone! gone! Joy is fled for us.

Gone into the night of the never-
more,

And darkness rests where you shed for us

A light we will miss forever more.

IN MEMORIAM

S/Sgt. Francis L. Perry

Born March 12, 1919

Died Nov. 17, 1944

Dear Son Francis:

Twenty-seven years ago today my eyes were bright with joy, as I held you in my arms.

Today they are dimmed with tears, for I have just a picture of you.

I cannot say Happy Birthday, son, nor send you a greeting.

For God has put his arms around you and taken you home to rest.

TRAGEDY HITS PONTOW FAMILY THIRD TIME WHEN SON IS KILLED

John Casper Pontow, thirteen year old son of Ernest and Ida Pontow, was instantly killed near his home east of the city at 7:30 Wednesday night, death being caused by a skull fracture suffered when he evidently fell from a truck onto the road.

The family group was just leaving the tavern where they had eaten supper, for their home down the lane to the south. Some of the group started ahead on a truck tractor and as the balance started to get into the car to follow, a younger sister saw the boy lying on the ground by the roadside. It was found that the upper part of the left side of his face was crushed and though no one saw him on the truck or knows what happened it is supposed that he fell from the tractor, the fracture being caused either by striking some of the machinery or the hard ground. When brought to Momence to the doctor, the lad was pronounced dead.

Funeral arrangements are not complete but services will be held at the Canaday chapel at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be in Morocco, Ind., cemetery.

John is the third son of the Pontow family to be killed in tragic accidents, all occurring within a half mile. The first was killed in 1937 when a bicycle he was riding on the highway was struck by a car; the second met instant death last year when he came in contact with a high tension wire while riding atop a house which was being moved on the highway.

Surviving are the father and mother and two other children.

Edward A. Porter Dies At Watertown, S. Dakota

Edward A. Porter, son of Carson and Ellen Richardson Porter was born on the Porter homestead southeast of Momence June 18, 1878 and passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Freda Barthan of Watertown, South Dakota, Dec. 5, 1945.

He grew to manhood in this vicinity. He was graduated from the Momence High School in 1900 and from the University of Illinois in 1906.

In 1905 Mr. Porter was married to Miss Bessie McKee and to this union two children were born, Beatrice who died in infancy and Freda Barthan who survives.

He spent many years teaching agriculture on Indian Reservations in Oklahoma.

Other relatives who survive are: a brother, Clare Porter of Morocco, Ind., an Aunt Mrs. Emma Gordinier of Momence, and nieces and nephews of Morocco.

Mary Porter Pioneer Woman Dies Monday After Lengthy Illness

Mrs. Mary Porter died at St. Mary hospital Monday morning following a long illness. She had been a resident of Momence and vicinity for many years, residing for some time in the Porter home on Locust Street. After that was broken up several years ago, she went to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. George Yohnka, near Exline. Here she had been ill for a number of months, being taken just recently to St. Mary for treatment.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. Hubert Verrill of Dana, Ind., officiating in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Klopfenstein. Burial was made in Mt. Airy cemetery with the sons and sons-in-law, George, Niles and Ellic Porter, George Yohnka, Harry Brunner and Ray Greenawalt serving as casketbearers.

Mary E. Dutcher, daughter of George N. and Hannah McCord Dutcher, was born near Rainville in Warren county, Ind., on Jan. 11, 1860, and departed this life on Nov. 3, 1941, at the age of 81 years. When very young she moved with her parents to a farm southeast of Momence. On Jan. 23, 1879, she was married to Martin M. Porter, who preceded her in death in 1934.

Mrs. Porter descended from one of those pioneer families that immigrated into the middle west more than a century ago. She had the character of a true pioneer and did her part to help develop this country from a raw prairie to what we see it today. Whatever task confronted her, she did, and without complaint. She seldom spoke of one unless she could say something good. She was always a wise and friendly counselor for her children and grandchildren who will cherish her memory always.

Mrs. Porter was the mother of six children all of whom survive, George N., Wilmot, Arkansas, Niles of Momence, Mrs. Harry Brunner, Wanatah, Ind., Ellic S. of Glenwood, Mrs. Ray Greenawalt, Monon, Ind., and Mrs. George Yohnka of Exline. She leaves also 14 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren, one brother, Sam Dutcher of Attica, Ind., and many nephews, nieces and friends.

Some months ago Mrs. Porter came across a little poem in her reading and copied it. Some of her friends think it a good expression of her creed:

My Daily Creed

Let me be a little kinder, let me
be a little blinder,
To the faults of those about me;
let me praise a little more;
Let me be, when I am weary, just a little bit more cheery:
Let me serve a little better those that I am striving for.

Let me be a little braver when temptation bids me waver,
Let me strive a little harder, to be all that I should be;
Let me be a little meeker with the brother that is weaker
Let me think more of my neighbor and a little less of me.

Then, too, I have not mentioned the soldiers who perished in the war. To name them would require a whole article. I may give the list some future day.

His father and mother were with him when he died. The deceased was a son of Alva Rogers, the lame man who lived last year in Walter Chipman's house, and he was the chief support of his father's family. Later he did missionary work in Texas and California before he was sent to St. Jude four years ago. The deceased was in charge of the refectory at St. Jude and as far as is known, has no relatives in America. His death is the first which has occurred at the college since it opened in 1933.

LAY BROTHER DIES SUDDENLY TUESDAY ST. JUDE'S SEMINARY

Brother Castor Santinan, 63, second oldest lay brother at St. Jude seminary, died there suddenly at 1:45 o'clock Tuesday morning apparently of a heart attack.

Brother Santinan had been in good health up to a few days ago when he complained of difficulty in breathing. He worked as usual on Monday and retired early but arose about 1:30 and walked down the hall to the room of a priest where he collapsed. Though a physician was immediately summoned, the brother passed away before his arrival.

MRS. SAVOIE CALLED

Mrs. Adeline Savoie, a life-long resident of St. George, died Tuesday at 10:30 p. m. at her residence after a long illness. Mrs. Savoie's mother, Mrs. Boudreau, died last February. The daughter had been her constant attendant during her long illness of six years and when the mother died, Mrs. Savoie, worn out, took to her bed and there remained until death came to release her.

Adelaine Boudreau was born in St. George December 31, 1866. With the exception of a few years spent in Chicago, she lived in St. George all her life. She is survived by one brother, Victor Boudreau of Kankakee; two sisters, Mrs. Cornelia Tatro of South Dakota and Mrs. Ernest Glardon of Kankakee.

The funeral will be held in St. George at 10 a. m. Friday and burial will be in the St. George cemetery.

OBITUARY.

DIED—Of Paralysis, at Momence, Ill., on Saturday, the 21st day of February, 1874, Elizabeth, consort of Henry Scramlin, aged 66 years and 2 months.

Mrs. Scramlin was born at Sharon, Schoharie County, N. Y. Her maiden name was Bloss. She was married to Mr. Scramlin in 1849, being at that time the widow of John Van Valkenburg, by whom she had one child, William, who is now living at Climax, Michigan. She was the third wife of Mr. Scramlin, and at the time of her marriage with him he had twelve children—four of them twins—the twins being Oren and Warren, Harman and Farman. At the time of the marriage, Pamela, the youngest child, was about one year old. In the year 1850, Mr. Scramlin moved with his family to the farm now occupied by Samuel Nichols, a few miles north-west of Momence, and lived there 14 years. He then sold out and moved back to Michigan, and lived there 10 years. In their old age being, as it were, alone, their living children having all married, Mr. Scramlin and his wife longed to come back to this place, where six of their children are living; so the place in Michigan was rented, and they came back here, and went to live in the second story of Oren Scramlin's house.

Mrs. Scramlin was an extraordinary good woman. Though she was not the mother of any of her husband's children, she took their dead mother's place, and looked after and cared for them as tenderly as though they were her own. She has always been vigorous and healthy. Last Wednesday evening she attended the New England Festival, and was feeling unusually well, but on Friday she was stricken with paralysis, and remained unconscious until her death, which took place the next day, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Her loss will be most deeply felt by her husband, whose head is silvered over by the frosts of seventy-four winters. He was born Oct. 10, 1799. Being eight years the senior of his wife, he would reasonably expect to be called away first, but it was ordered otherwise. Last Tuesday he, with his children and her child, tenderly laid her away in the narrow house, while he is left, in his feebleness and old age, to journey on alone till his appointed time shall come.

DIED—

At Willow Creek Minn., on Wednesday the 10th, of lung fever, Elva, daughter of Oren Scram-lin. Aged 15 years.

Grace E. Scramlin, Well Known Resident, Dies

Miss Grace E. Scramlin, 68, passed away at Mrs. Frances Betourne's Nursing Home in Kankakee, Friday evening, Jan. 10.

She was born in Momence in 1864, one of three daughters of John H. and Margaret Pollard Scramlin, both early settlers in this community. She was educated in the Momence schools and taught here in a country school when still a young lady. She moved to Chicago after the death of her father in 1894. Her mother and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Batchelor and Mrs. Ernest Woollett, preceded her in death several years ago. Grace moved back to Momence about five years ago.

Those who knew Miss Scramlin are aware of the fine person that she was and the keen sense of humor she possessed. This is perhaps one of the most outstanding points of any person's life. She was kind and considerate, devoted to her home and her family and always ready to respond to any call for service she could render. She was of a cheerful happy disposition and a good friend to everyone who knew her. She did things for people in all walks of life.

She leaves to mourn her loss a niece, Martha Woollett of Chicago, and a number of cousins in Momence, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Bertha Thomas, Mrs. Sam Calkins, Mrs. Jay Sanstrom and Mr. Fred Nichols. Also Mrs. Bertha Jones of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Funeral services were held from the Canaday funeral home Monday, Jan. 13, with Rev. Alfred Shaw, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiating. Burial was in the family lot in the Momence cemetery.

Pallbearers were Fred Clark, Ira Metcalf, Raymond Kral, Fred Nichols, Ed Wilkins and Mr. Adams.

Out-of-town friends attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Woollett of Homewood, Ill., Mr. Henry Woollett, Miss Betty Larbock and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Goldberg of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Looker, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Looker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grinnell and Mrs. Lillian Waeckter of Kankakee.

DIED

At the residence of her parents, in Pembroke, March 2, of rheumatism of the heart, Emma Jane, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sherwood, aged twelve years.

On account of sickness, no minister could be had but after a short prayer and her favorite song "O Think of the Home Over There," the remains were interred in the Shrontz cemetery.

A FATAL FLASH.

Guy Sherwood Struck Down by Lightning and Instantly Killed.

On Wednesday morning of this week, Mr. Guy Sherwood of this city, arose from the breakfast table at his home on the south side of the river and went out of the house. In about three minutes after, there was a severe flash of lightning, followed by a loud clap of thunder. So violent that Cyrus Sherwood and his mother hastened out to see where it had struck. They found Guy at the door of the water closet, partly inside and partly out lying across the threshold. They raised the alarm and Henry Davis, who lives next door, and Richard Templeton Jr., of the South Side Store, three doors distant, came at once. These found that life was extinct, although a slight gurgle occurred in the throat, caused by the removal of the remains. He was carried to the house, and while the rest rubbed him and tried vainly to restore life, Mr. Templeton hurried to the store and summoned Dr. A. S. Burr by telephone.

He arrived in about twenty minutes, and after examining the body, pronounced life extinct.

On examination it was found that the small barn standing adjacent to the closet, had been struck by lightning in the peak at the west end, descending to the ground, causing but slight damage to the property. Evidently the flash did not strike Mr. Sherwood directly, but the shock or terrible concussion caused his death. There were no marks of a shock on his person, but the bolt passed within two feet of where he stood.

Coronor Thomas Clark was called from Kankakee, who came at once and went to the scene of death. He empanelled the following named gentlemen as jury-men:

Geo. Chatfield.	Nelson Osby.
-----------------	--------------

O. M. Harlan.	H. C. Paradis.
---------------	----------------

E. J. Seroy.	James Russell.
--------------	----------------

Cyrus Sherwood, Henry Davis and Richard Templeton Jr. were examined as witnesses, after which the Coronor's jury brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts above stated.

Guy Sherwood, the deceased, was the son of Mrs. Charlotte Sherwood. He was a little over 18 years of age and was residing with his mother south of the river. He was a young man of intelligence and good habits and his loss is a serious affliction to mother, brothers sister and sorrowing friends.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m., at the South Side chapel, Rev. Palmquist preaching the sermon. The remains were laid to rest in the Shrontz cemetery.

Former Resident Is Buried Here Monday

The remains of Albert (Bert) Shortridge were brought Monday afternoon from Chicago to Momence where they were interred in Momence cemetery with Masonic rites. Mr. Shortridge had been ill for just a month and died in a Chicago hospital on Thursday last week.

The deceased will be remembered by older residents here, having been a Momenceite for many years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shrotridge, moved here from Indiana when he was a young boy and he resided here until after his marriage to Sarah (Sally) Casiday of this city. He was employed for years as a detective for the Illinois Central railroad and made his home in Harvey until a short time ago when he moved to Chicago.

JOHN SMITH.

Born March 5, 1828.

Died January 26, 1914

John Smith was born in Vigo county, Ind., on March 5, 1828, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Baechler in this city, January 26, 1914, at the advanced age of 85 years, 10 months and 21 days. He had been gradually failing for a number of years, and a shock to his nervous system caused by a fall several months ago was the immediate cause of his death.

When but a lad seven years of age in 1835, Mr. Smith came with his parents to what is now Yellowhead township and settled on a farm near Sherburnville, where he resided for many years and became known to all as one of the most progressive farmers of those days. Being one of the pioneers of the county he knew the privations that early settlers encounter. Eight years after the family came here, his father died, leaving him, the eldest son, as the head of the family, and this duty was fulfilled with credit to himself.

Mr. Smith was united in marriage to Jane Britton on November 2, 1851, and to this union ten children were born, seven daughters and three sons. Two of these are deceased, the remaining ones being Daniel, Darlus and Ansel of near Sherburnville, Mrs. M. E. All the old time tunes will be played as they used to be played in the good old times. There will also be a large number of special features which will make the occasion one of real enjoyment. The price of admission will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Seats may be reserved without extra charge at Burdick & Joubert's drug store.

Will Improve Picture Service

The Bijou has made a change in the brand of films to be used in the many years and became known to all as one of the most progressive farmers of those days. Being one of the pioneers of the county he knew the privations that early settlers encounter. Dickey of Santa Ana, Cal., Mrs. Nancy Hayden of Chino, Cal., Mrs. Sarah Hayden of Providence Forge, Va., Mrs. Lucy Zartman of Galveston, Ind., and Mrs. Alma Beachler of Mokence. He also leaves 33 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren. His wife died on November 22, 1906.

Mr. Smith united with the Christian church at Sherburnville in his early youth and lived a consistent christian life. He was a kind and loving husband and father, an obliging neighbor and a good citizen. After the death of his wife Mr. Smith made his home with his children, the last few years residing in this city.

During the civil war Mr. Smith did not enlist as a soldier, but did noble service as a patriotic citizen. Upon two occasions he and his brother William made two trips to the south with car loads of provisions, clothing, etc., for the boys in blue, who hailed them with an enthusiasm that is beyond words. Their last trip was to Memphis, Tenn., in 1863, and there are in Mokence and surrounding country today men who shared in the things brought to them on the field of battle by Mr. Smith, and they have nothing but words of praise spoken with deep feeling for his memory.

Mr. Smith was a member of Mokence lodge, A. F. & A. M., and Island Park Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, being the oldest Woodman in the order. Funeral services were held from the Christian church at Sherburnville on Thursday forenoon, conducted by Rev. Bonway of the Baptist church. The Masons had charge of the services at the grave.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs.

Will Improve Picture Service

The Bijou has made a change in the brand of films to be used in the future. Mr. Hoag has been securing his service from what is known as the Licensed company, but the service has been so unsatisfactory that Mr. Hoag decided to change to the Mutual, and expects to give even better satisfaction in the future than in the past. Harry is determined to satisfy his customers and evidently is doing so, judging from the ever increasing attendance.

Does at its anchor swing,

Is in the song I sing.

Railroader Retires After Seven Wrecks And 44 Year

After about 11 p.m. tonight the old song, "I've Been Working on the Railroad," could well be changed to "I Used To Work on the Railroad," as far as Michael J. Smith, 756 N. Schuyler Ave., is concerned.

Smith, who turned 70 on Sept. 26, left Kankakee at 11 p.m. Monday night to begin his last run as a New York Central freight train conductor.

His last run, in caboose 19671 which he has had for a number of years, was to Eukhart, Ind. He left there again about 4 p.m. today, and when he gets back to Kankakee tonight he and the railroad will part company as far as employment is concerned, but not memories.

HIS 44 YEARS on the railroad hold many pleasant memories for him, but a few, like the seven train wrecks he's been in, he'd just as soon not have. Luckily the worst that ever happened to him in the accidents is that he lost a little skin.

He recalls that the worst wreck he was in was a few years ago near Judson, Ind., when a spliced track came apart throwing one of two diesel engines off the track and piling up a number of cars.

One of the cars was a gasoline tanker and sparks from the derailed cars ignited it. Flames shot up around the train, including Smith's caboose, "making the night as light as day. You should have seen us scramble to get out of that caboose. We tore out of there like a bunch of scared rabbits," he says.

Smith started working for the railroad March 2, 1914, as a brakeman, and in 1933 was made a conductor. He lived in Momence when he started, and moved to Kankakee about 1918.

AS CONDUCTOR OF the train he was in complete charge, and it was his responsibility to make out reports for each car picked up or dropped off.

Now that he is going to be strictly his own boss 24 hours a day he plans to get in a little more of his favorite pastime, fishing and hunting.

But other, probably more important, work awaits him at home. The Smith's home on North Schuyler avenue was one of those ravaged by the flood of 1957. Water on the first floor of the house was about two feet deep. The couple lost almost all of its possessions,

AFTER TONIGHT SCENES like this will be a thing of the past for Michael J. Smith, 756 N. Schuyler Ave., railroader for the past 44 years. Smith, a New York Central freight train conductor, began his last run Monday night, and when he returns from Elkhart, Ind., tonight his time with the railroad will have ended. (Journal photo) and the house had to be extensively repaired and completely redecorated inside and out.

Much still remains to be done, Smith says. "So even though I'm retiring from one job I still have my work cut out for me in another. But I won't need to worry about finding time to do it anymore, I'll have all kinds of time now."

She was of a family of seven sisters and one brother and the first one of its number to be called by her Heavenly Father to her home beyond. She was of a reserved nature but those who made her acquaintance found in her a loyal and true friend, and kind neighbor.

ROBERT R. STETSON MOMENCE GROCER FALLS DEAD MONDAY

The entire community was shocked by the sudden and unexpected death of Robert R. Stetson, which occurred at his home about ten oclock Monday morning.

Mr. Stetson had gone from the store to the home two doors north to look after the stoker and when his return was delayed, Mrs. Stetson went over to find out the reason. As she went into the kitchen, she saw him lying on the basement stairs where he had fallen just as he was about to enter the kitchen, the cigar which he had been smoking, still in his hand. Help was summoned at once and he was moved to the living room but life was already extinct, death having probably been instantaneous.

The remains were taken to the Ruge Funeral Home where they lay until Tuesday afternoon when they were taken to his home where the Rosary was recited Wednesday night. Final services were held at St. Patrick church at ten oclock Thursday morning with the Rev. T. U. Demarais officiating. Burial with full military rites was made in the church cemetery. Business houses in the city were closed during the hours of the services. Bearers were Hugh Scanlon, Roy Hess, Virgil Prairie, Hubert Ruther, DeWitt Carpenter of Momence and Jack Haslett of Shelby, Ind. Serving as honorary bearers were E. J. Reising, Louis Bignani, Dr. Wooldridge, Pat Horn, Wm. Wehr, Ed Kurtz.

Robert Stetson was born in Iroquois county, Dec. 8, 1892, the son of Emmett and Lois Legg Stetson. On June 13, 1918, he married Martha Girard in Kankakee. For a number of years he operated farms north and west of the city, taking over the grocery store on North Dixie hyway about ten years ago. Here by his pleasant, genial manner, he made friends of young and old, the school children coming in for their small daily needs, receiving his special attention. His interest in people led to numerous acts of kindness on his part, which helped many a person through a tight spot.

He enlisted in the United States army in June of 1914 and served until February, 1919, being honorably discharged as a corporal. He had been active in the affairs of the American Legion since its inception, having held several offices in the local post. He also served for a number of years as a member of the Park board and was interested in all civic affairs.

Surviving to mourn his untimely departure in addition to his wife Martha are a son Robert, Jr., his mother, Mrs. Lois Stetson and a brother George all of Moline, and a sister, Mrs. Elsie Chatfield of Des Moines, Iowa.

There is no prison for the soul
That dwells within God's boundless peace;
And sickness builds no dungeon
walls
For one who knoweth sin's
surcease;
He soars on tireless pinions high,
And lives beneath the open sky.

Rose Styck Stetson was born in Custer Park on Dec. 24, 1893, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Styck. She was married in Kankakee in 1910 to George Stetson and thereafter resided in Aroma Park for three years. Coming then to the Momence community, she had made her home here since then, having lived for the past several years on the farm north of the city where her death occurred.

She was the mother of one daughter, Lois, now Mrs. Ralph Gray of Kankakee, who survives together with the husband, George. There are also two grandchildren, Robert and Ardis Gray of Kankakee; four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Homan, Kankakee; Mrs. Emma Burling, Chebanse; Mrs. Lillian McKay, St. Anne; Mrs. Margaret Steele, St. George. There are in addition, other relatives and uncountable friends.

By her friendly and pleasant manner, Mrs. Stetson had made a most favorable impression in all of her contacts and her passing thus early in life leaves a void in her family circle and among her friends which will long remain unfilled.

No single virtue we could most commend Whether the wife, the mother, or the friend;
For she was all in that supreme degree
That as no one prevailed, so all was she.

Friends Mourn Sudden Passing Of Rose Stetson

Shocking family, friends and the entire community, came the news on Tuesday of the sudden and entirely unexpected death of Mrs. George Stetson, well known resident of North Dixie, which occurred at her home early that morning.

Mrs. Stetson had been in her usual health, in fact she had been down town late Monday afternoon and conversed with friends, and had attended a party at the home of relatives that evening, reaching home about midnight. Her husband arose in the morning, leaving her sleeping as he supposed. About eight thirty o'clock, her passing was discovered, death having occurred several hours previously.

The remains were taken from the Ruge Funeral Home to her late home Wednesday afternoon and final services were held at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the Rev. Fred Payne officiating. Mrs. Will Chipman sang. Burial was in the Momence cemetery with Arthur Felt, Ed. Chipman, Lloyd Griggs, Lewis Fawver, W. W. Therien and Anthony Parish serving as bearers.

Mrs. Stewart had been a resident of Kankakee for the past 70 years.

The deceased was born at Morrilltown, Ark., Dec. 7, 1886, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blakely. The residence where she died is the former home of her brother, Ernest, who passed away two years ago. Mrs. Stewart, a resident of the city for the past seven years, was a member of the Episcopal church of the Good Shepherd, the Woman's Auxiliary of the church, and the GAR auxiliary.

Surviving are three cousins, Mrs. Mary Meinzer, of Momence; Clarence Graham, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Eldon Graham, of Chicago. The Rev. James G. Parker, rector of St. Paul Episcopal church of Kankakee, officiated at the services. Interment was in the Momence cemetery.

SUDDEN DEATH--

Last week Wednesday morning, Miss Nellie M. Sullivan, aged about 26, who was teaching the colored school in Andrew Ellis' neighborhood, and boarding with Mr. Ellis, went to her school as usual. About 11 oclock, being taken suddenly unwell, she dismissed her school and went to the house of Thomas Hunter and got Mrs. Hunter to make her a cup of tea. Mrs. Hunter made her go to bed and then went to the neighbors for help. When she got back home, Miss Sullivan was dead. Her death was probably caused by the rupture of a large blood vessel. The neighbors buried her the next day. Miss Sullivan's parents resided near Boston.

The father of Nellie Sullivan, who died so suddenly a short time ago, in Andrew Ellis' neighborhood, has come for the body, and he passed through Momence with it last Tuesday, on his way to his home near Boston.

DIED.

SYKES.

At Pueblo, Colorado, March 9, 1882, of Mountain fever, Mrs. Jennie Sykes, aged 27 years and 8 months.

The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Hague, formerly of Momence.

Mrs. Hague and her daughter moved to Prairie Star, Neb., in 1871. December 25, 1876, the daughter married Wilbur Sykes, who proved a good husband but an inveterate rover. Three times during their short married life they broke up and then bought a new outfit when they settled again.

In the spring of 1881 her husband went to Colorado, and she joined him in the fall. She was well until a few days before she died. Her mother was telegraphed to but the telegram was delayed and she did not reach her daughter until after her death. The deceased leaves two children.
